

Hodge Aides Enter Pleas Of Innocent

Hintz, Epping Arraigned on State Charges

Banker Slated to Start Serving U. S. Term Friday

SPRINGFIELD, Ill. (AP) — Edward A. Hintz and Edward A. Epping, key figures in the Hodge case, pleaded innocent today to state charges growing out of the million-dollar scandal in the state auditor's office.

Hintz' plea meant that Friday he will start serving a three year federal prison term on federal charges in the case.

Hintz entered his plea first, then left the courthouse.

About a half hour later, Epping arrived with his attorney, Hugh J. Dobbs, his wife, Eva May, who is expecting their third child in November, and his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Edward J. Epping of Granite City.

46 Indictments
Epping stood up and entered his own plea of "not guilty, sir." He pleaded innocent to 46 indictments charging embezzlement, forgery, and confidence game and to two indictments charging conspiracy to defraud the state.

Epping was the former office manager for ex-Republican State Auditor Orville E. Hodge, who is now serving a 12-15 year sentence in Menard State Prison. Epping has described himself as a "glorified messenger boy" in the phony state check scheme which Hodge used to milk the state treasury of an estimated one million dollars.

May Use Hodge
Meanwhile it was reported at East St. Louis that Hodge himself may be called out of prison to testify at a federal grand jury inquiry into gangster Frank (Buster) Wortman's affairs.

The grand jury investigation resumed there today, with some 17 witnesses scheduled to appear, most of them involved in extensive business dealings with Wortman.

But Wortman and two other East St. Louis area hoodlums, Elmer (Dutch) Dowling and Sam Magin were in the courtroom at Springfield as Epping and Hintz entered their pleas.

Wortman and his associates were waiting to be questioned by the Sangamon county grand jury investigating the tangled financial mess in the state auditor's office that drove Hodge from office and into prison.

Shot Accidentally Hunting Squirrels In Golconda Area

A Golconda man, Billy Jim Barger, 29, was wounded early Sunday morning while hunting squirrels alone in a woodland near Golconda.

Barger was accidentally shot by Verdun Randolph, son of Mr. and Mrs. R. R. Randolph of Harrisburg. Randolph is employed by the State Health department with headquarters in Springfield. He was accompanied by Ronald "Tony" Favreau, formerly of Harrisburg and employed by the State Health department in Carbondale.

The wounded man was taken by Randolph and Favreau to the Memorial hospital in Metropolis and it is reported approximately 150 birdshot entered Barger's face and body.

X-rays indicated that none of Barger's vital organs were penetrated and he is given an excellent chance for recovery.

At the time of the accident Barger was stringing a squirrel on a branch and Randolph and Favreau said they could see the tree branch moving, then saw the squirrel and shot. Due to the dense underbrush they were unable to see Barger, but heard his moans immediately after the shooting and rushed to the scene and found the wounded man and then rushed him to the Metropolis hospital.

Barger is the son of Dr. K. S. Barger, a Golconda dentist, and a former resident of Harrisburg. Dr. Barger is a brother of Loy Barger, Harrisburg.

State Traffic Fatalities 14 Over Week-End

Three Die in Crash Near Springfield, Trio in Rantoul

By United Press
Authorities today counted at least 14 persons killed on Illinois highways and city streets between 6 p. m. Friday and midnight Sunday.

Two of the worst accidents took place Sunday, killing three persons in each. Two more persons died Saturday in a head-on collision near Illinois.

One of the triple-death accidents took the lives of Archie Hunt, 24, Palmer; Donald Brown, Taylorville, and Wayne Jacobs, Decatur. They were killed when the car in which they were riding was struck by a freight train near Springfield.

Two cars rammed head-on in Rantoul and killed Sylvester Hill, Chebanse, Mrs. Mary Kingery and her son, Lloyd, of Neoga.

The Illinois crash killed Edward Martin and his wife, Agnes, Martins Ferry, Ohio.

Chicago police were searching for the driver of a car which struck and killed Floyd Sperl, Chicago, Sunday night on the city's South Side. The car sped off without stopping after hitting Sperl.

Other victims included Nancy Larson, 14, Chicago, killed in an auto collision on Chicago's South-West Side, Ruth Frohling, Elgin, killed when the car in which she was riding overturned on Ill. 72 near Elgin, and Patricia Ann Little, 11, Sandoval, killed when struck by a car on Ill. 51 near Sandoval.

Also dead in fatal accidents were William Moran, 19, St. Anne, whose auto hit a culvert near St. Anne, and Lawrence Young, 46, Prospect Heights. Young died when the car in which he was riding slammed into a tree near Arlington Heights.

Mrs. Capitola Nulty New Principal of Stonefort School

The Stonefort grade school, which opens Tuesday, Sept. 4, has a new principal.

Mrs. Capitola Nulty, who has taught primary grades in the Stonefort school for the past several years, has been designated as principal and will teach the seventh and eighth grades. She succeeds Mrs. Minnie Womack, who resigned to go to Wooten school in Pope county.

Mrs. Nulty has announced that the first day of school will be devoted to registration and assigning class schedules, with pupils released in time to return to their homes before the noon hour. The cafeteria will not start operation until the following day.

Enrollment at Stonefort is expected to total approximately 95 pupils, the principal stated.

Other members of the Stonefort staff—George Smith, fifth and sixth grades and coach; Miss Helen Gurley, third and fourth grades; Miss Mary Casey, first and second grades; Roma Hill, lunch room; Orlean Fowler, custodian; Seaborn Kennedy, bus driver.

This is Miss Casey's first year in the Stonefort school system. She is from New Burnside.

The lunch program is sponsored by the PTA unit, Mrs. Nulty revealed, with Mrs. Phyllis Boatright treasurer of the program.

Child Hit by Car, Arm Hurt

Joyce Schofield, 9, Injured Near Home At Carrier Mills

Joyce Schofield, 9-year-old daughter of Mr. and Mrs. James Schofield of Carrier Mills, received a broken arm when struck by an automobile Saturday morning. She received treatment at the Medical Arts building in Harrisburg and returned to her home.

Mrs. Schofield stated today Joyce was recovering nicely and would be able to start school with other pupils on opening day next week.

State Patrolman Guthrie Alexander, who made the investigation of the accident, stated the little girl was struck by an automobile driven by Patricia Rabourn, 22, of Carrier Mills and that her father, Cecil Rabourn, was a passenger in the car. Alexander stated the Rabourns told him Joyce, who was walking along the highway, stepped into the side of their automobile, but was not knocked down by the impact.

The Rabourns were travelling north on Route 45, coming to Harrisburg, and brought Joyce and her mother to the doctor's office in Harrisburg.

The accident occurred across the highway from the Schofield home, about a half mile northeast of Carrier Mills.

Several years ago a son, James Henry Schofield, was struck by an automobile at almost the same spot and was killed.

Serious and Religious Theme in This Year's Observance, J. E. Grisham Reports

Ike to Hit Hard in September; Adlai and Kefauver Barnstorm

Demos Headed To Santa Fe on 1st Leg of Trip

After Four Days to Return to Chicago For Session There

By TOM NELSON
United Press Staff Correspondent

CHICAGO (AP) — Adlai E. Stevenson and Sen. Estes Kefauver set out on a barnstorming tour today to gather campaign ammunition from Democrats in 34 states.

The Democratic presidential nominee and his running mate took off from Midway Airport this morning on a four-day trip to set the stage for their campaign.

Their chartered plane headed first for Santa Fe, N. M., where Democrats from seven Southwestern states gathered for a huddle with the candidates late today.

To Return Friday

From Santa Fe, the candidates will fly to Vancouver, Wash., Tuesday and then to Sioux City, Iowa, Wednesday, and Knoxville, Tenn., Thursday, for similar meetings. They will return to Chicago for a session Friday.

Stevenson said the idea of the tour was to "make sure we strike together in hammering home the great issues of 1956." His campaign manager, James A. Finnegan, said the trip would lay the foundation for "the greatest grass roots campaign of all times."

Congressmen, governors and others high in party circles were invited to the parleys. They will be closed to the public and press, presumably so that anyone with complaints will feel free to voice them.

Adlai said that Stevenson might brief the press after each meeting on what transpired.

Simms Named Chairman

John Simms, governor of New Mexico, was named chairman of today's Santa Fe conference. New Mexico, Texas, Oklahoma, Colorado, Wyoming, Arkansas and Arizona sent representatives.

A score of staff members and many newsmen accompanied Stevenson. The Stevenson staff included Finnegan, who fathered the tour idea, and F. Joseph (Jiggs) Donahue, Kefauver's campaign manager.

A hint that the states of the party's treasury may be a key topic at the conferences came from two names on the passenger list—Matt McCloskey, Philadelphia, Pa., treasurer of the Democratic National Committee, and Roger Stevens of New York, treasurer of the Stevenson-Kefauver Campaign Committee.

Chicago Paper Charges Failed To Account Sum

Report Democratic Chiefs Want Him Out Of Governor's Race

CHICAGO (AP) — Cook County Treasurer Herbert C. Paschen, who yesterday said he was considering withdrawing as the Democratic candidate for governor of Illinois, was accused by the Chicago Sun-Times of failing to account to the county board for a 1955 outlay of $4,000 from his contingent fund.

Paschen's statement on possible withdrawal came shortly after State's Attorney John Gutmacht announced that Paschen will be summoned before a grand jury investigating a "welfare" fund in the county treasurer's office.

The Sun-Times, in its charges against Paschen today, said the Democratic candidate for governor used his entire contingency fund allowance for the year to repay $4,000 he withdrew from the county treasury Dec. 8, 1954, one day after taking office.

Contrasting Answers

The Sun-Times asked the treasurer if he would account for the expenditure as required by county budget provisions and said he refused, saying, "Every county officer has such a contingent fund and need not account for it."

However, the newspaper received contrasting answers from Daniel Ryan, county board president.

"There's no question about it," Ryan said. "He has got to account for the money. All such county funds have to be accounted for."

The newspaper said Paschen repaid another withdrawal of $4,000 from the county treasury this year with his contingency fund again. Paschen was reported to have written a check to himself Feb. 23 on the county general fund and cashed it in his office.

Says Planned No Accounting

The Sun-Times said he turned over his entire contingent expense allowance April 24 to repay the withdrawal. According to the newspaper, Paschen said he did not plan to explain the use of his fund this year, either.

C. Richard Hodgman, deputy comptroller, told the newspaper he had no doubt that Paschen was required to account for the expenditure.

"We might have been derelict in not asking for the '55 report," he said. "But you can be sure that Mr. Paschen will be required to make a report on the expenditure of his 1956 allowance."

Party Leaders Suggest Quitting

It was reported that local party leaders, headed by Chicago Mayor Richard Daley, have suggested that Paschen quit the race.

Paschen denied that anyone had asked him to top off the slate,

No Hysteria from Wives of Men Who Went Down When Plane Hit by Reds

IWAKUNI, Japan (AP)—Courageous wives of the U. S. Navy airmen shot down last week off the coast of Communist China today expressed a deep pride in their missing husbands and a quiet, fervent hope they may still be alive.

Four wives whose husbands are still lost and one wife who already knows that hers is dead met the press at this naval air station for the first time since Communist planes shot down a U. S. Navy patrol plane with 16 men aboard early Thursday.

There were no tears, no sobs and no hysteria.

Seated in the quiet atmosphere of the base executive officer's home were Mrs. Beverly Deane, wife of Lt. (jg) James B. Deane, Grand Rapids, Mich.; Mrs. Dorothy Flood, wife of Lt. (jg) Francis A. Flood Jr., Chevy Chase, Md.; Mrs. Frances Messenger, wife of AT2 Carl E.

Messenger, Laredo, Mo.; Mrs. Ruth Hutchinson, wife of Lt. Cdr. Milton Hutchinson, Cumberland, R. I., and Mrs. Elizabeth Jean Mattin, wife of AET-1 Albert P. Mattin, Delta, Ohio, the only man whose body has been found.

The wife of Lt. Cdr. James W. Ponsford of Long Beach, Calif., was the only one unable to attend the conference. She was still under a doctor's care.

The women, composed both showing the ordeal of the past four days, all wanted the "folks at home" to know they were all right.

Mrs. Mattin, the only woman who knew for certain that her husband was dead, almost broke down as she spoke, but she caught herself in time. "I am not despondent, and I have no regrets," she said almost inaudibly. "I'm very proud of my husband. I am sure he was willing to give his life for his country."

Paschen denied that anyone had asked him to top off the slate,

but said he was "undecided about continuing as a candidate."

"One minute I feel like continuing, and then I think I ought to withdraw," Paschen said.

He added that a subpoena would be unnecessary, and that he would willingly appear before the grand jury Tuesday.

The investigation has been concerned with whether banks holding county funds were pressured to contribute to the fund. Although the county treasurer has maintained the fund was proper and ethical, two employees connected with it have been fired since the investigation was launched.

"It's my position that the matter of the welfare fund has in some instances been misrepresented," Paschen said.

President Had Been Expected To Hold Up Fire

Apparently He Will Campaign With More Intensity than Planned

By MERRIMAN SMITH
United Press White House Writer

PEBBLE BEACH, Calif. (AP) — President Eisenhower, contrary to most opinion, will start slugging at the Democrats about the middle of next month.

Mr. Eisenhower had been expected to withhold his heavy political firepower until sometime in October, but according to his press secretary, James C. Hagerty, the chief executive will make his move about Sept. 15.

Mr. Eisenhower was expected to remain here at least until Wednesday morning and fly back to Washington for a quick series of conferences with top GOP political chieftains, then leave for a weekend at his Gettysburg, Pa., farm Friday.

What He Did Sunday

Mr. Eisenhower Sunday: 1. Announced that Russia had resumed testing of nuclear weapons. He said in conjunction with Lewis L. Strauss, chairman of the Atomic Energy Commission, that the Russians on Aug. 24 tested a nuclear weapon of "less than a megaton" power in southwest Siberia.

2. The President and Mrs. Eisenhower visited the historic Catholic mission in nearby Carmel, then worshipped at the Carmel Presbyterian Church.

3. The chief executive played golf during the afternoon on the Cyprus Point course and finished with a "paper" score of about 90, playing the best golf since his June 9 1955 operation.

Hagerty's estimation of the campaign was somewhat different and pending definite word in Washington, it looks like Mr. Eisenhower would campaign more extensively than originally planned.

Major Speech About Sept. 3

His first major campaign speech probably will be about Labor Day, Sept. 3. Whether the speech is made from Washington remains to be announced.

Disclosure of the latest Russian nuclear explosion was made by Hagerty for the President after Mr. Eisenhower attended church.

The press secretary said the Aug. 24 weapon was "a higher type than atomic" but he was unable for the moment to say whether it was a hydrogen bomb.

Mr. Eisenhower took the occasion to call again for "effective international control of atomic energy."

Hagerty declined to give details of Mr. Eisenhower's campaign plans because "I have no intention of giving blue prints to the Democratic opposition at this time."

Cleared in Slaying 3 Schoolboys

OAKLAND, Calif. (AP)—Two days of lie detector tests have cleared Norvel Degrove, 42-year-old ex-convict, of any implication in the murder of three Chicago boys last October.

Local law officers and three Chicago policemen sent here to question Degrove said they "agreed unanimously" that Degrove was telling the truth when he denied killing John Schuesser, 13, his brother, Anton Jr., 11, and Robert Peterson, 14.

However, they were convinced the tests connected Degrove with two Midwest sex offenses.

Degrove, a nurseryman in Chicago at the time of the slayings, was arrested by the FBI here Friday for unlawful flight to avoid prosecution on charges of raping an 8-year-old girl in Elmwood Park, Ill., on Jan. 24, and kidnapping and molesting another 8-year-old girl in Angola, Ind., on May 11.

The former convict may also face charges here. Alameda County Sheriff H. P. Gleason said Degrove has been identified by a 9-year-old boy as the man who molested him recently.

June 5 Was Turning Point

Presidential nominations seldom can be explained within the narrow perspective of a convention itself. In Adlai Stevenson's case, the turning point came two months before in California.

There on June 5 the biggest and most vital primary decision of the year was taken. Stevenson, beaten in Minnesota and moving erratically until mid-May, captured California's 68 votes in a smashing victory over Senator Kefauer by more than 450,000 votes.
Thereupon Stevenson's basic core of strength, which never had deserted, firmed up. Slowly his delegate position was advanced. He was the clear choice of several delegations picked after California.

His indicated early ballot strength was 500 to 600 votes. Not all of this was openly declared but it was there. And signs suggested he had still more in reserve, especially in the South.

By July 31 his declared total was nearing 450. That day Kefauver pulled out and went for Stevenson.
Not all his followers responded to his call but some did, and Adlai climbed even higher.

The scene shifted to Chicago.
Two days before the convention,
former President Harry Truman plunged for Gov. Averell Harriman of New York who at that time had 90-odd New York votes, 28 in Oklahoma and a smattering in the West.

Evidently believing he by himself could make Harriman king, Mr. Truman did indeed create a great stir in Chicago. But the effect of his action on the delegates was almost negligible. Few delegates left Stevenson for Harriman.

David McDonald, steel union head, picked Harriman. Harriman forces thereupon claimed big inroads in Pennsylvania, with several union delegates. But a Pennsylvania caucus showed Stevenson 59 1-2, Harriman a mere 11. That same day, Sunday, Louisiana went 24-0 for Adlai.

The first two days of the convention Stevenson continued small but definite gains which Harriman did not match. No big groups moved to the New Yorker. Arizona's 16 helped lift Adlai to 57 1-2.

Still, Stevenson leaders were nervous under the Truman-Harriman blows. Favorite son states favorable to Stevenson were bidding time as were pro-Stevenson Southern states anxious about the civil rights in the platform plank.

Walter Reuther and others who declared for Adlai feared his managers might make a deal with Sen.
Lyndon Johnson of Texas to gain the last lap. They didn't want the South to have the credit.

Thus Tuesday they pressed Gov.
G. Mennen Williams of Michigan, holding 44 votes to move first. He did and three-fourths of the Michigan group chose Stevenson.

That was the maneuver which sent other delegates tumbling headlong into Stevenson's column to clinch it.

But other favorite son states, including Ohio, Washington and Massachusetts, would likely have put him over anyway by the second ballot, with or without great help from the South.

Stevenson simply had it all the way and no combinations, no gestures by Mr. Truman, no fights over civil rights figured to stop him.

The voters of California had seen to that.

The Washington Merry-Go-Round

By DREW PEARSON

Drew Pearson Says: Truman will go fishing in Australia; Ike will use Marshal Zhukov to win votes; Brazilian and Italian observers fascinated by political conventions.

WASHINGTON — Ex-President
Truman is taking another trip abroad, and taking it right at the beginning of the election campaign. He has booked passage to Australia on Pan American Airways September 18. Unless the politicians persuade him to change his mind, this will be his answer to the question of whether or not he will campaign for Adlai Stevenson.

In brief, Mr. Truman, who was not entirely appreciated by Stevenson when he went whistle-stopping in 1952, has now decided to go fishing in Australia in 1956.

Only recently Truman returned from one trip abroad, the first he ever made as a private citizen.
But now he will go to Australia and Asia to see a part of the world where his foreign aid policies play an important role in fighting communism.

Apparently Mr. Truman has reversed his Chicago statement that what Adlai Stevenson needs is help
"from an old man from Missouri."

President Eisenhower's big secret weapon, to be sprung around October, is to be a visit from Marshal Zhukov of Russia.

Coming at a time when the American public is intensely interested in peace, White House advisers are convinced the visit will have the same bombshell effect as Ike's "I shall go to Korea" promise made during the 1952 campaign.

They believe that a visit from Eisenhower's old wartime buddy will arouse none of the criticism that might come from a visit by Bulgarian and Khrushchev, but will receive almost unanimous approval.
It will especially stamp the President as a leader who can head the United States and Russia toward permanent peace.

CONVENTION AFTERMATHS

Len Hall says the Republican motto is: "Stick with Ike." The Democrats say their motto will be: "Stick with Ike and Get Stuck

are joking about the Nixon hand-shake. You feel the other fellow's pulse while you shake hands with him (the other fellow is supposed to be Ike) ... Quoth ex-Mayor hope to be president: "Any candidate who comes to the convention with 96 votes and $200,000, 000 has a chance." ... Biggest scoop of the two conventions was scored by Bill Hearst—his quote from Harry Truman that Adlai couldn't win. ... Roy Cohn, one-time featured in the Army-McCarthy hearings, pulled wires for Governor Harriman at Chicago. He was especially influencing Nevada votes through J. Sourwine, former counsel for Senator Eastland's witch-hunting committee. Cohn and Harriman don't agree on anything political, but Harriman dropped the investigation of Cohn's well-known violation of New York National Guard's training rules

... Members of the Missouri delegation couldn't get their favorite son, Senator Stuart Symington, on the telephone for two days. They wanted to switch to Adlai instead of sticking with Symington. ...
Harry Truman has given only one political contribution so far—to Senator Wayne Morse of Oregon.

WATCHING U. S. POLITICS

Two of the most interested spectators at both the Chicago and San Francisco conventions were Am-we are making great strides in bassador Amaral Peixoto of Brazil and Amintore Fanfani, former Italian minister of the interior.

Both men attended both conventions. They wanted to study the American political system at the grassroots. Both were tremendously impressed.

Ambassador Peixoto was head of the Social Democratic party in Brazil before he resigned to accept the ambassadorship to Washington. He is also the son-in-law of the famed late President Vargas.

Fanfani is now secretary general of the Christian Democrat party in Italy and is waging a valiant battle to defeat Italian Communists.

"I was fascinated," he said, "to see how your democracy works from the bottom up, not from the top down. Italy, of course, has long been under a Monarch. But

Doctor Share Child's Health

Guarding a school child's health is a responsibility divided among the school, the doctor and the parent. All three cooperate in preventive medicine and in caring for difficulties that may arise.

Exercise and diet and rest are important to a child's health.
Chores like transplanting and weeding cannot replace sports as exercise, since they use the same motions constantly and can cramp growing bodies when done for long periods.

Weight-lifting at home doesn't replace swimming and baseball. A parent should give his child a chance at the sports for health as well as social reasons.

Diet, for a growing child, is a vital matter. He uses up what he eats first for energy. What's left over goes for growth. That's why a steady diet of candy and soda, while it gives energy, does nothing for growth.

A vitamin supplement may be indicated by the doctor, one such as Unicap.

Rest is also important. The child should have a good, firm mattress and a suitable atmosphere for sufficient sleep, though the amount may vary somewhat.

The hyperactive child may not eat much and rest little. In this kind of case, some physicians prescribe an appetite-perker and child-calmer. One of these is Somato-vite.

In addition to providing for the child's exercise, diet and rest, the parent should see that the doctor gets a chance to do this work. A physical and dental check-up is required in many communities before school opens, but should be done in any case.

One community survey noted that four out of every 10 school children had health defects including bad teeth, infected tonsils, poor eyesight, even heart conditions.

Another survey warned that 32 per cent of the children with some disorder failed to get medical attention.

Preparing for the illness one hopes won't come means cleaning out the medicine chest. All clutter, including unlabeled bottles, old prescriptions, old drugs, should be thrown out. The chest should contain: absorbent cotton, bandage, gauze squares, adhesive tape, burn and bruise ointments, aspirin, baking soda, eyewash, cough remedy, thermometer, salve for temporary muscle aches, rubbing alcohol and calomine.

The school, which tests and examines in areas that may injure a child's school work—sight, hearing, TB, communicable diseases—should get cooperation from parents. If glasses are indicated, the child should get them.

Nearly 400 at Golden Wedding Anniversary of Smiths at Ozark

Nearly 400 persons took part in the three-day celebration of the Golden Wedding anniversary of Mr. and Mrs. Lindley M. Smith at their home in the community of Ozark Friday, Saturday and Sunday.

Members of the First Baptist church of Ozark gave a dinner in honor of the Smiths at the church Friday evening. Over 100 persons in addition to the family attended the event.

On Saturday, 65 members of the immediate family, cousins, brothers and sisters of Mr. and Mrs. Smith and a few guests gathered at Fruitland, the popular name for the Smiths' orchard farm, for a dinner on the lawn and an observance of the anniversary.

The climactic event of the three-day celebration came on Sunday afternoon when nearly 200 persons greeted the Smiths at a reception in their honor from three to five o'clock.

Only five of the immediate family of 41 could not be present for the occasion. They were Elizabeth, a daughter, who is on an assignment with the State Department in the Philippines; three grandchildren; and a daughter-in-law. The Smiths have 22 grandchildren—11 boys and 11 girls.

The Sunday guests were greeted in a receiving line by each member of the immediate family and then were served refreshments of cake and punch by ladies of the Ozark community.

In addition to Mr. and Mrs. Smith, the following persons were present:

Voters' League Advises Study Before Balloting

(Editor's Note: United Press asked Mrs. John G. Lee, president of the League of Women voters of the U. S., a non-partisan organization, to tell how to be a well-informed voter in this presidential election year. In the following dispatch written for United Press, she outlines her suggestions.)

By Mrs. John G. Lee
President, the League of Women Voters of the U. S.
Written for United Press

FARMINGTON, Conn. — (U) — Go to candidates' meetings, listen to speeches on radio and television, read everybody's campaign flyers, seek out the voting records of the incumbents, and inform yourself on the issues by reading the news columns, the editorials and the columns.

It is only by knowing the candidates, what they stand for and whether their records of performance indicate that they will carry out their promises, that you can make an intelligent choice at the polls.

And it is only by knowing the issues that you can relate what the candidates say and do to the important questions of our times. National issues as such do not appear on the ballot, but inevitably the way we feel about them affects our choice of candidates.

Interest Of All

In looking at national issues the League urges that the voter think of them from a national point of view rather than how they will affect his particular part of the country or his special economic group. The willingness to subordinate local and special interests to the interests of the United States as a whole should be kept in mind when considering the qualifications of the men and women running for Congress.

General characteristics which the League considers important in any representative of the people—local, state or national—are: Intellectual integrity, independent judgment, broad background in civic affairs and political sagacity. You can't judge a candidate on one issue alone. It is more important to be familiar with the broad general philosophy of the candidate than to accept or reject him on his voting record—or his promises—in one particular field.

This, of course, goes in making a choice for the most important office in the land—that of the Presidency of the United States. But here, there are other important considerations as well.

Some Questions

Some of us will cast our ballots on what we feel the parties stand for; others will think more in terms of the qualifications of the particular candidates. Many of us will try to combine these two considerations: acknowledging the importance of party principles but at the same time trying to judge the qualifications of the individual for the job.

Here are some of the questions you may want to ask:

Does the candidate for President have the ability to understand the needs and wishes of the electorate and at the same time the qualities of leadership that will inspire the people to the best that is in them?

How will he get along with Congress? How well will he be able to persuade Congress to work with him for what he and those who elected him conceive to be the national interest?

Has he the ability to judge people and so place them in important administrative positions that a coherent national policy can be put into effect?

Does he have a clear understanding of the inner workings of government and the relationships of the various departments to one another to the public?

Does he have an understanding of the basic elements which make the U. S. economy tick and a clear picture of the relationship of our economy to that of other countries?

Does he have the ability to take the lead in the field of foreign relations and to lead in a positive program for building a peaceful world?

Pinza Suffers Stroke; Doubt as To His Condition

MILANO MARITTIMO (U) — The career of famed basso Ezio Pinza, who suffered a slight stroke three days ago, was at the crossroads today with his wife saying he will never work again and his doctor pronouncing him "almost completely recovered."

Whether the silver-haired singer who became a matinee idol at almost 60 in "South Pacific" will know more "enchanted" evenings in the theater has yet to be determined.

Pinza suffered the stroke in his bath Friday in this small village near the town of Ravenna where he spent his youth. He recovered quickly and was able to reach his bedroom unaided. He was visiting Italy with his wife and children on a short vacation.

FAIR FIGURES—"Crusader," a strapping three-year-old boar, gets groomed by an aspiring queen at the Los Angeles County Fair. Behind the brush is Joan Sweigart, 18, of San Gabriel, Calif. Joan vies for crown of the Fair's queen, while Crusader is an entrant in the Livestock division.

Nixon Admits Tough Campaign Coming Up

WASHINGTON (U) — Vice President Richard M. Nixon arrived in the capital today to begin planning the forthcoming Republican campaign.

Nixon told reporters at National Airport he would confer with members of the Republican National Committee, "but first I have to get a little sleep."

He said there is "no question that it will be a tough campaign."

Egypt Stalls On Suez Reply

Committee Invites Further Talks on Future of Canal

LONDON (U) — Egypt put off for another 24 hours today any reply to a five-nation committee's invitation for further talks on the future of the Suez Canal.

The committee headed by Prime Minister R. G. Menzies of Australia met for two hours today in expectation of receiving an answer from Egyptian President Gamal Abdel Nasser. Then it adjourned until Tuesday.

Officials in Cairo announced that Nasser's reply would be delivered Tuesday, when it will be presented through the Egyptian embassy here.

The Menzies committee, set up by the 18 nations which supported Secretary of State John Foster Dulles' plan for international control of the Suez Canal, met to study semi-official Egyptian reports that its members would be invited to hold talks in Egypt.

Daniel Apparent Texas Winner in Governor Runoff

DALLAS, Tex. (U) — Sen. Price Daniel apparently won the Democratic nomination for governor of Texas in the state's closest race for the post, nearly complete returns from Sunday's runoff primary indicated today.

The unofficial returns, gave Daniel a 2,523 vote lead over his runoff primary opponent, Austin Attorney Ralph Yarborough. The Texas election bureau estimated that only 1,600 votes remain to be counted.

Political observers said the election may be a guidepost to how the state will vote in the presidential election in November.

Four years ago, Gov. Allan Shivers went for Dwight D. Eisenhower and the state went Republican. Daniel joined Shivers in supporting Mr. Eisenhower. Yarborough went for Adlai Stevenson.

AFL-CIO Leaders May Back Adlai

FOREST PARK, Ga. (U) — AFL-CIO sources said today that the top leaders of their 15-million-member organization are moving closer to an endorsement of the Democrats' 1956 presidential ticket.

The AFL-CIO's 28 member Executive Council, gathered here at a union-owned mountain resort, was expected to discuss today the question of whether the organization should take a stand in the presidential race.

W. L. Miner, Ridgway Resident, Is Dead

William Leo Miner, 73, resident of Ridgway, died at 3:30 a. m. today in the Ferrell hospital in El Dorado.

He leaves his wife, Nora, two daughters, Mrs. Helen Ruth Raden and Mrs. Robert Crane and two sons, Glen and Willard Miner, all of Ridgway.

The body is at the Smith and Edwards funeral home in Ridgway and plans for the funeral are in complete.

Bomb Blows Up Paducah Musician

PADUCAH, Ky. (U) — Band leader Vivian Shaudet, 42, whose four-piece combo was well known in western Kentucky and southern Illinois, was killed Saturday when an early morning bomb blast demolished his automobile.

Police said Shaudet, who was staying with his wife at his parents' home here, received a telephone call at 4 a. m. telling him that the home he has under construction at suburban Lone Oak was on fire.

The house burned down two months ago and was being rebuilt. Shaudet ran to his automobile but the bomb went off before he could step on the starter. He died en route to a hospital here.

Police investigating the slaying said Shaudet apparently had not turned on the automobile's ignition. Members of the Lone Oak Volunteer Fire Department said the house there actually was on fire, but the blaze was easily extinguished.

Shaudet, who also worked for a wholesale produce firm as a salesman, was married recently and was building the new home for his bride.

Quiz Kidnaped On Placement of Baby in Woodland

MINEOLA, N. Y. (U) — Police questioned the confessed kidnaper of month-old Peter Weinberger today in an attempt to discover if Angelo John LaMarca had deliberately placed the baby in dense underbrush to silence the infant's cries.

Nassau County Chief Inspector Stuyvesant Pinnell said LaMarca insists he placed the living baby gently on the ground near a heavily-traveled highway after a number of people near the spot he was to pick up his $2,000 ransom demand frightened him away.

Pinnell repudiated the statement saying if the swarthy mechanic had wanted Peter to be found he would not have left the child so far from the road, a point five miles from the Westbury home of Mr. and Mrs. Morris Weinberger.

New Auditor Demanding Full Time Work for Wages; 80 Off Payroll

By Don E. Chamberlain
SPRINGFIELD, Ill.—One aftermath of the departure of ousted State Auditor of Public Accounts Orville E. Hodge, Granite City, is a strict personnel policy whereby every employee of the Auditor's Office must put in a full day's work for a full day's pay. It is aimed to prevent a recurrence of "payrolling," the employment of persons who got state paychecks but who didn't do any work.

Newly-named Auditor Lloyd Morey, Urbana, emeritus president of the University of Illinois, where he also served as comptroller, has issued orders to his employees informing them that hereafter the auditor's office will be a "working" office and the quotes are his. He said each employee will be expected to comply with the work-day schedule and carry an appropriate work-load.

Each person receiving compensation, he said, will be expected to maintain at all times "a full level of productivity and devote full-time to the work of the office." He asked all of his employees "to join with me in the effort to bring it to a high level of efficiency and economical and trust-worthy operation that will command public respect."

More than 80 employees Morey inherited from the free-spending days to Hodge have had their resignations accepted or have been fired by the new auditor. Some are said to have done no work at all, even to the point of sending in expense accounts, while others performed little work. Morey estimated the saving to the state in dropping their amounts to more than $200,000 a year.

Another aftermath of the Hodge scandal is the clamping down on after-hour visitors to the statehouse. Secretary of State Charles F. Carpenter, East Moline, now requires every employee coming into the state house after closing hours to register at the information desk in the main floor rotunda. It involves a sign-in and a sign-out to prevent theft of documents as happened in the Hodge case.

Sam Young, Evanston, assistant secretary of state, said that all employees from Gov. William G. Stratton and Secretary Carpenter down will have to register. He said Carpenter took the action after a night watchman testified before the Sangamon county grand jury that he saw several employees of former Auditor Hodge remove files in an early morning operation.

It was later disclosed the records were taken to Hodge's Lake

Springfield home where typists prepared fake vouchers and bogus state warrants. The new program, Young said, will halt unauthorized removal of such records and other state property from the building. Most state offices close at 4 p. m. during the summer months and a staff of watchmen and janitors take over.

A newspaperman was the winner last week of the grand championship of the Annual Antique Automobile Show, an Illinois state fair project sponsored by Secretary of State Carpenter. He is Richard J. Leiser, editor of the Mendota Reporter and Sun Bulletin. He won it with a 1905 Cadillac touring car which was generously decorated with shining brass work.

W. S. Abbott, Alton, had three winners. He placed first in steamers with a 1898 Mobile, and was second in vintage sport cars with a 1936 Swallow and in acetylene era makes with a 1912 Willys-Overland. Richard A. Cox Streator, was the runnerup for the grand championship with a 1902 Oldsmobile. Herbert S. Lohman, Hillsdale, was third with a 1904 Ford.

What other newspapers say: Grayville Mercury Independent suggests state set up an educational program to prepare motorists for expecting new state law for speed control of Illinois highways. . . . Rock Island Argus advocates speed law to reduce traffic deaths. . . . Quincy Herald Whig says Hodge affair emphasizes need for approval of proposed new state banking act.

Proper Shoes Necessary for School Wear

If you want your child to stand at the head of his class better make sure that he stands in well-fitting leather shoes. Shoes are all-important to growing bodies but children don't really know when their feet hurt — any more than they know when they're suffering from eyestrain.

That puts it up to the parents, who will do well to follow these rules for the shoes he wears back to school and throughout the school year:

1. Patronize a reputable shoe retailer who wants the child as a steady customer.

2. Check the construction of the shoes you buy. Foot doctors recommend a shoe with leather soles as well as leather uppers. Leather, being firm yet resilient, provides support with flexibility. It also allows air to circulate freely inside the shoe through its tiny invisible pores. Run your hand inside the shoe and make sure the insole feels smooth all the way to the toe.

3. Check frequently to see that shoes still fit. There is no set rule, of course, but on the average, children need shoes every two months up to the age of 10; after that every two or three months. See that there is still plenty of room for all the toes both in length and width.

4. Don't let your son wear sneakers except for brief periods on grassy play areas or gym floors. On the concrete playgrounds of city streets, or on the unyielding sidewalks and sidewalks, young feet need the solid foundation that sturdy leather shoes provide.

Once you've checked the construction and fit, you can give your youngsters their head when it comes to style. For both girls and boys, you'll find all the new leather textures—crushed leather, grained leather, matte leather, and aniline-dyed leather, to name but a few—in styles as new as today's lesson.

The most popular numbers in the casual line for both sexes are a slip-on shoe or a low-cut oxford with a moc toe. They are longer and slimmer than before and have a neatly-tailored leather sole.

For girls, they will also boast many decorative details such as narrow buckled straps around the back, crossed-over straps at the instep and elaborate perforations. Leading colors besides the perennial black, brown and wine will include the pale beige to bright tan for both girls and boys, while girls will also wear more off-beat shades such as moonstone, white sand, and avocado.

Many young men will favor three- to five-eyelet bluchers. Monk straps are popular for dress-up. Girls, on the other hand, will vary the traditional shell pump and Mary Jane with high-fashion numbers including floral-printed leathers and those of vivid oriental oranges and blues with gold kid underlays and appliques.

Quiz Spinster's Friends In $467,288 Swindle

CHICAGO (AP)—Six neighborhood businessmen face questioning by the FBI today following a spinster's charge that they used her as a dupe in swindling a bank out of $467,288.

The case came to light when Miss Bessie E. Roth, 49, for 33 years a clerk at the Lavndale National Bank, was charged with mishandling the funds.

Benefit Games at VFW Park Tonight

A benefit baseball program will be staged this afternoon and evening by teams in the Kiwanis league for a player injured earlier in the season.

Joe Carnett, 14, catcher for the Social Brethren church team, suffered a broken collar bone in a collision at home plate and was hospitalized for several days, incurring a sizable hospital and doctor bill.

This was the only injury throughout the season.

At 5:30 this afternoon Karnes Sugar Creek team will meet Ridgeway and at 7:30 there will be a game featuring star players from the Three-Eye league, boys 13 and 14 years of age. There were five teams in this league and the top players from all five clubs will be picked and organized into two teams.

There will be no admission charged, but a collection will be taken and all money received will be given to young Carnett to apply on his medical expenses.

Legion Defeats Norris City, 5-4

Drops Tennessee Tilt; Friday Will Meet Murphysboro

Don Stout was in rare form Saturday night when he pitched the Legion nine to its fifth straight night victory by beating the Norris City Merchants, 5 to 4, at the VFW park.

The Legion scored three runs in the first on Odle's walk. Dailey's single and Dallas' triple and steal of home. Norris City tallied one in the first when Stevens was safe on a two-base error, and scored on Kenshaw's single. They tallied two runs in the fifth on a single by Barter, a triple by Cantral, and a double by Sturns.

The locals went ahead when Odle walked, stole second, and moved to third and home on ground outs. Logsdon scored the Legion's final run when he doubled, advanced to third on a ground out, and scored on a passed ball.

A tired Legion team took a 200-mile trip Sunday to Gallatin, Tenn., and dropped an 11-8 slugfest to the Travelers of that city.

Next Friday night the Murphysboro Red Wings will play the Legion at the VFW park, and Sunday the Henderson, Ky., ball club will be here.

Legion hits for the weekend: Dallas, 3; Odle, 3; J. Hay, 3; Logsdon, 2; Ziegler, 2; Gulley, 2; McNew, 1; Dailey, 1; and Stout, 1.

Dodger Killer Bob Buhl's Latest Over Brooks 7-0 Win; Cards, Giants Split

By FRED DOWN
United Press Sports Writer
Bob Buhl ranks alongside Sal Maglie, Bucky Walters and Ed Reulbach as a "Brooklyn Dodger killer" today with a 7-0 season slate that explains the Milwaukee Braves' three-game National League lead.

The 28-year old right-hander scored the most important of those seven wins Sunday when he beat the Dodgers, 6-2, in the opener of a key two-game series. In his seven victories over the Dodgers, Buhl has pitched 59 innings, yielding 48 hits and 15 runs for a glittering 2.28 earned run average.

Buhl's performance against the Dodgers this year tops any single-season mark compiled by Maglie when he was public enemy No. 1 in Brooklyn. He is the first pitcher to beat the Dodgers seven times in a campaign since Bucky Walters did it for the Cincinnati Redlegs in 1939.

It's ironic that Buhl comes from Saginaw, Mich., only 85 miles from the birthplace of the original "Dodger killer" — Reulbach. Back in 1908, Detroit-born Reulbach whipped the Dodgers nine times. Buhl will get one more crack at the Dodgers next month.

Pitches Seven-Hitter
Bob, who is 16-5 against the league, pitched a seven-hitter Sunday and had a shutout until the ninth when Sandy Amoros hit a two-run homer. The Braves backed him with a 10-hit attack that included home runs by Hank Aaron and Johnny Logan to hand Roger Craig his ninth loss. It was Milwaukee's 11th win in 19 meetings with the defending world champions.

The Redlegs fell 4-12 games behind the Braves when they split a doubleheader with the Philadelphia Phillies. The Redlegs pounded out 15 hits, including Ted Kluszewski's 33rd homer to win the opener, 10-5, but the Phillies came back with a 16-hit assault behind Harvey Haddix to take the nightcap, 11-4.

Bob Friend won his 15th game and Ronnie Kline his 11th as the Pittsburgh Pirates scored 2-0 and 2-1 victories over the Chicago Cubs. Friend fired a four-hitter in the first game and then pitched 1-3 innings of hitless relief to preserve Kline's triumph in the nightcap.

The St. Louis Cardinals and New York Giants split a doubleheader by identical 4-3 scores. Hank Sauer's three-run homer sparking the Redbirds in the first game and Johnny Antonelli coming to Dick Littlefield's rescue in the last two innings of the Giants' win.

Tigers-Yanks Split
The Detroit Tigers scored five runs in the third inning for a 5-4 triumph after Tom Sturdivant's six-hitter gave the American League-leading New York Yankees a 7-0 decision.

Rocky Colvaio hit a two-run homer and a two-run double to account for all the Cleveland Indians' runs in a 4-1 triumph over the Washington Senators. Early Wynn struck out six to win his 15th game and the 216th of his career.

Gerry Staley's six-hitter enabled the Chicago White Sox to gain a 5-1 win after the Baltimore Orioles snapped Billy Pierce's string of 13 straight victories over them with an 8-1 triumph. Bill Wight struck out five and yielded five hits in winning the opener.

Al Pilarcik's 10th-inning double drove in the winning run as the Kansas City Athletics beat the Boston Red Sox, 7-6, after a 2-1 defeat. Gus Zernial hit two homers to bring the Athletics from behind in the second game.

No-Hitter for Roper in 1-1 Tie

In the final regularly scheduled Kiwanis game of the season played Saturday night, Bruce Roper hurled a no-hitter as VFW played to a tie with Dairy Brand, 1-1.

Roper had control trouble as he walked eight, but struck out 12 in the eight-inning contest. Woolard pitched a good game for Dairy Brand, giving up five hits and walking two, while striking out nine.

Both teams' runs came in the fifth inning. VFW tallied when Biggs led off the inning with a single, went to second on a ground out, and scored on Nelson's base hit. In Dairy Brand's half of the fifth, they scored on two walks, an infield out, and a passed ball.

Moore led at the plate with two safe blows, and Biggs, Roper, and Nelson hit safely once each.

Robert H. Drodge, 27, was arrested on a fraudulent pretense charge filed by Ray Fisher, a Mount Morris, Pa., service station operator who said his account at the First National Bank of Morgantown was $22,500 short.

HOLLYWOOD—(NEA)—Hollywoodies are talking about: Bob Hope nixing movie contracts to his 17-year-old daughter, who is a Grace Kelly cool beauty type. She'll enter an eastern college in the fall... That new Hollywood apartment house where the color of the water in the swimming pool will be changed weekly.

Plans to film the story of Lt. Col. Frank R. Everest, who flew 1,900 miles an hour in a super-sonic jet plane. Bill Holden plays a similar role in "Toward the Unknown," in which the 1,900-mile-an-hour jet also appears.

Gregory Peck teaming up with Lauren Bacall in MGM's "Designing Woman." Jimmy Stewart and Grace Kelly headed the cast until Grace "retired" to Monaco... Columbia studio shelving plans to produce a big-screen "Wild Bill Hickok" starring Guy Madison and Andy Devine. Announced reason: Failure of TV personalities to click in recent movies.

THIS IS HOLLYWOOD, Mrs. Jones: Advertisers in Daily Variety, the movie trade paper: "Moon for Sale. Beautiful, accurate model, 4-12 feet circumference."

NOT IN THE SCRIPT: Barry Wood, producer of TV's "Wide World": Next year we expect to include material from Europe and eventually both Europe and America will see each other live.

THE WINNET: Groucho Marx, turning down a London newspaper's offer to pay him $200 for a 1,000 word story about the 60th anniversary of motion pictures in England: "I have $200 and I don't know 1,000 words."

Convalescing Humphrey Bogart admitting he lost 35 pounds—"I was down to Sinatra's weight"—but predicting he'll be back to work this fall... Art "You Asked for It" Baker getting something he didn't ask for—a divorce settlement payment of 15 per cent of his annual income to former Broadway actress Alice Weaver. They had been wed almost 15 years... Paul Douglas heading for Europe soon for another telefilm series.

Vegas hotel solo this fall while Dean Martin hops to Italy to visit distant relatives. The Lewis-Martin "pardners" routine continues distant, too.

C. B. DeMille is denying those retirement rumors again. Says he: "I don't want to waste away. I want to wear out."

Mary Costa, the TV commercial beauty on "Climax," co-stars with Rory Calhoun in a new movie, "The Big Caper." Mary recorded the voice of "Sleeping Beauty" in the Disney movie several years ago.

Bing Crosby's sprout, Dennis, now in Germany, checks out of the Army in October... Veteran film comedian Roscoe Ates is on the mend after minor surgery in a Hollywood hospital... TV will dramatize Mickey Mantle's life story at World Series time. Tony Perkins gets the role originally intended for the late Jimmy Dean in "The Sea Wall." Anna Magnani will play his mother.

Off the Sound Track: Betty Hutton has made her "retirement" complete—a projected TV series, a new movie and now another Las Vegas night club booking, where she said "farewell" only two years ago... Shelly Winters is burning over repeated showing of "Double Life" on TV. She thinks she should be participating in the profits and says she may complain to the Screen Actors Guild. Shelley has lots of company. Every star in Hollywood is in the same boat—apparently without a legal lifeline.

Thinking It Over

By Robert L. Dieffenbacher, D. D.

FOREST fires have swept through vast areas of America's woodlands. Half a century after a fire has destroyed a stand of timber, the black skeletons of yesterday still stand above the brush and younger trees. These charred spikes speak for the continued carelessness of man. God alone can make a tree, yet when man destroys a tree, he cannot erase the destruction in a lifetime. Of course, men do not cause forest fires intentionally, but millions of trees have been burned year after year.

Carelessness and thoughtlessness have allowed fires to grow from sparks or embers into huge conflagrations. Someone thought the match he dropped was out, or that the campfire was dead. Normally the embers would have ceased to glow and the sparks would not have been fanned into fire.

It would have required only a little attention to be sure. A shovel more of earth, another bucket of water, a stamped-out ash or an unlit match would have saved untold destruction of these natural resources which God has given. In spite of widespread publicity about forest fires, their causes and man's carelessness, the destruction continues.

We pray for forgiveness of our sins of omission and commission. We ought also to pray for our elimination of carelessness. It is not enough to be sorry. We must overcome the thoughtlessness and the lethargy which makes carelessness exist.
